

ROLE CHARTER OF THE CHARTERED SECRETARY

The Chartered Secretary is an untiring advocate for good governance.

Integrity, accountability and transparency are the key attributes of the Chartered Secretary.

The Chartered Secretary takes action guided by the rule of law and morality to serve the well-being of the organisation and its stakeholders.

The Chartered Secretary is in constant pursuit of knowledge and skills to be able to guide or lead in any situation.

Specially trained in the complex disciplines of corporate governance, corporate secretaryship, corporate financial management and corporate administration the Chartered Secretary practises and upholds the highest standards that underpin the value of good governance.

12 January 2006
Kuala Lumpur

